

Crossley Disability Advocacy & Training — Handout

Who we are

Crossley Disability Advocacy & Training provides practical support for families, schools, and organisations — focused on clarity, courage, and consistency.

About Claire

Parent carer, advocate, and trainer with decades of experience across education, health, and social care. Worked with ministers on sleep and care rates; served on local and national charity boards.

What we do

Training, family advocacy, and ADA/504 compliance reviews with implementable actions.

Key Services

- Training: virtual, half-day, full-day options
- Family advocacy: hourly, bundles, meeting support
- Compliance reviews: website checks, on-site reviews, implementation check-ins
